

Rabindra Adhikari

May 7 of 1969 was Sunday and also the day when the leader of Nepal was born. Jamunabot of Bharatpokhari VDC in Kaski district was born place of Rabindra Adhikari. He was also the first child of his parents mother Laxmi Adhikari and father Indra Prasad Adhikari. He started his primary education through the school of his own village Shree Brahma Jyoti Primary School and got his secondary education through Shanti Uday secondary School it is now upgraded into Higher Secondary School. His father Indra Prasad Adhikari was also the teacher of Secondary school so he got good environment of study from his home and family members. From the time to pees on his pants he was interested toward the politics and social work and betterment of society. So, he was completely engaged within the groups that are involved in social work and politics just like ANNFSU, Red Cross and even in other clubs like this. He started the free coaching service, library, cleanliness programs, sport events, Drama and other activities related to these was organized by him to increase the political views on the mind of every student. In his high school he was hard working, struggling towards his studies and disciplined student.

He was interested towards politics so he got an opportunity to join a political career as he was joined in Prithivi Narayan Campus to continue his further study after SLC. His Political career started from 1985 A.D as he became the chairperson of All Nepal Free Student Union of P.N campus then he continued his career again by becoming the President at 1993 A.D of Free Student Union at Prithivi Narayan Campus then again he was able to be the President of Free Student Union central committee of Tribhuwan University at 1997 A.D. Then he was the Coordinator of Council of Free Student Union Nepal at 1997 A.D. Then at 1999 A.D he was chairperson of All Nepal National Free Student Union, Central Committee. Then this way he continued his political career and he got an opportunity to become Secretary of Communist Party of Nepal UML Kaski at the year 2003 A.D. Then he was elected as parliament member on the election of 2008 A.D and of 2013 A.D from Kaski-3. He is a president of Development committee legislature parliament from 2071 - Present. His writings are published on various daily, weekly and monthly newspapers and various presentation papers of seminars and workshops. He has published two books till now they are

- 1) Constituent Assembly, Democracy and Restructure of The state – 2005
- 2) Prosperous Nepal (Samriddha Nepal) – 2016

He had many international visits the country he have visited are like India, China, Paraguay, Japan, Thailand, South Africa, Russia, Cuba, Algeria, Vietnam, USA, Sri-Lanka, South Korea.

According to Adhikari Politics and development are inter related with each other. He played an important role on development of Kaski district while he was in the parliament. Development of Tourist board of Pokhara, protection of lakes in Pokhara like Fewa, Begnas, Rupa and others lakes. He also focused in cleanliness of the city by expanding the roads of Pokhara and Developments of bridges to cross two hills or pass through the rivers or any water resources. Development of Pokhara University and Prithivi Narayan Campus was also done because of him. Also he was helping in the establishment of different schools and colleges. The plan to make Pokhara the beautiful city of World is aim of him and he is trying it through developing the transportation sources by starting international airport at Pokhara and establishment of Kathmandu-Pokhara-Lumbini fast track. Politics is required for development is the motto of Adhikari and he is fulfilling by developing Pokhara and planning towards the development of whole nation.

Official website : <http://rabindraadhikari.com/>